

Coaches Profiles

Nigel Lee - Head PGA Coach

Nigel Lee qualified as a professional in 1981 and has specialised in coaching since 1987. He has furthered his own development by working with Denis Pugh, Bill Ferguson and Peter Cowan. For the past eight years he has worked regularly with Mac O'Grady on the M.O.R.A.D. golf teaching system. He has attended conferences in Britain, Europe and the United States, addressed by some of the world's top teachers including Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter Hank Haney and Mike Hebron. In addition he has taken part in many seminars arranged by the P.G.A. and the N.C.F. He uses his extensive knowledge and experience to teach all levels of golfers, from beginners to European Tour Professionals. In 1994 joined the National Coaching Federation and is currently a Kent County Junior coach.

Matt Barber - Academy PGA Coach

Matthew Barber is one of Chelsfield Lakes resident coaches, he joined the coaching staff in 2001, when he started the P.G.A. Diploma course and became fully qualified in 2004. Since 2004 Matthew has developed his own teaching skills by attending several coaching courses. Now he has the ability to coach people of different standards and all ages. For the last 4 years he has developed the Young Masters Golf program for juniors at Chelsfield Lakes.

Steven Farquhar - Academy PGA Coach

Steven turned professional in 1991 and became a fully qualified professional in 1995. Experienced in teaching all golfers ladies, juniors, beginners and currently coaches the 2007 Kent Youth Champion. Has attended several P.G.A. workshops on child protection and is CRB checked. Previous position was assistant professional at Tandridge Golf Club 1991-1998 and head teaching assistant at Cherry Lodge Golf Club 1998-2007. At Cherry Lodge was junior organiser for 6 years, responsible for coaching, competitions and set up his own academy for juniors.

To formation or to book a lesson please call: 01689 896266 or email:
chelsfieldlakes-academy@crown-golf.co.uk